ALL OF A SUDDEN (PG) — SAT 21 NOV, 4pm

★★★★★ – Financial Times. The director of a suburban Paris nursing home faces resistance from staff and shareholders after introducing a care method based on dignity, but finds support for her cause from her terminally ill friend.

Ryusuke Hamagu (Drive My Car) directs this existential mediation on capitalism and caregiving. Part of the French Film Festival 2026.

Tickets available now.

FILM & TEXTUAL ANALYSIS (18+) — SAT 21 NOV, 11:30 – 17:00

Dive into the subject of film form, and learn how to decode and analyse meanings and messages in cinema.

Guided by tutor Connor Winterton, you'll develop the tools and techniques to look beneath the surface and unlock a deeper appreciation for the textual craftsmanship in filmmaking.

Tickets available now – £20 / £18 Members

All non-member tickets are subject to a £1.25 admin fee. Member tickets are exempt from this fee.
